BETTER LIVING AFRICA

Food preservation is an effective way of saving food and preventing it from being wasted or lost. In fact, communities around the world have been employing food saving methods for centuries in order to prolong its shelf life. UNEP called the global WED community to share their knowledge on indigenous and traditional ways or preserving food and here you can learn some interesting examples we offer.

AGRISERV

is one of the innovative Nigerian integrated producers, marketers and distributors of high-quality fresh fruit and vegetables, as well as a creative producer and distributor of vegetables, juices, beverages, snacks, and desserts.

ENTREPRENEUR IN ACTION /NETWORKING INITIATIVES

Youth Leadership, Entrepreneurship and Economic Sustainability. The project will be implemented through the following strategies:

- ✍ . Enhancing youth groups' knowledge and capacity on entrepreneurship, occupational and leadership skills and life skills,
- ✍. Improving youth groups' self-sustainability and social participation.
- ✍. Creating a mode of operation and networking between youth groups.

SAFETY AND SECURITY

We provide valuable training in a wide range of counter terrorism skills, which will help reinforce incident priorities and future objectives- strong focus in life safety, incident stabilization and property preservation.

Develop the most comprehensive informative, intelligible curriculum using perceived needs of an organizations, Government,, Worship Centers, Factories, MDA.

Conduct and prepare a physical security risk survey and vulnerability assessment on key facilities, estates, etc, evaluate threat level (if any) and submit restricted reports to the officer in charge conventional approach to standard case-specific strategies to defeat these threats, always.

BLOW MAGAZINE is a medium through which Writers/Authors, Religious groups, Government, Individuals, Corporate organizations, Civil Society and other organizations disseminate information, suffice to say that it is inspiring, informative, educating and entertaining.

HOW AND WHY DO WE DO IT?

We achieve all this by working together - with partners around the globe. BLOW Outreach is all about knowledge exchange between UN agencies, governments, universities, research organizations, NGOs, farmers' organizations, private sector, and the wider community. We recognize that, in its simplest form, knowledge exchange is about starting constructive dialogue. That is why one of the most popular activities is the Outreach Forum series. Project topics are demand-driven, and lead by partner institutions who specialize in different areas of opportunities
