Social & Healthy Action for Rural Empowerment

About SHARE

The non-profit, non-political social organization "Social & Healthy Action for Rural Empowerment" (SHARE) is an endeavor and commitment to address the underprivileged, disadvantaged community living unrecognized in Jharkhand, remote hilly terrains where services are hard to reach.

Our Project

With support of our sponsors, SHARE is currently exerting its fullest effort to create maximum employment opportunity, stop child labor, check drop out in education and fight with hunger and food insecurity at grassroots level.

Our Presence

SHARE' primary target is people who live in remote and tribal areas in Jharkhand. SHARE has worked in many districts of the states including Seraikella-Kharasawan, West Singhbhum and East Singhbhum. Currently the organization is focusing on Potka block under East Singhbhum block where majority of the people live below poverty line.

Behavioral Change Communication

SHARE along with UNICEF disseminate the message about four key issues on health: hand washing, girls' education, breast-feeding and HIV-AIDS; through video show in order to raise awareness and to improve their level of health, education and livelihood.

Our Impact

Jharkhand Tribal Development Program

JTDP has extended full support to ensure that tribal and weaker section of society is strengthen in every aspect by providing job opportunity integrated in developing their own village. This includes construction of ponds, village approach road, irrigation canal, drinking well and life saving irrigation. Until now, we have constructed 203 water shed structures.

Self Help Group

SHG is a project to promote villagers welfare in rural areas. SHGs are formed on the basis of affinity to enable poor women and men to cultivate the habit of savings, to improve their management and decision making skills, to control their resources and voice their demands and to provide credit and support for sustainable livelihoods. In 2010, 90% of households in current working area have representative in SHGs.
