Dear Colleague:

Thank you for your completed application for purposes of accreditation to the Global Environment Facility. It is my pleasure to inform you that the National Women's Welfare Society has successfully completed the process for NGO accreditation.

You will receive all information transmitted through our regular mailings to the NGO community. We would also like to remind you that the GEF Website, <http://www.gefweb.org>, is a very useful means of obtaining the most recent and comprehensive information on GEF activities, including information prepared for the purposes of the GEF Council meetings.

As an accredited NGO, your organization is welcome to attend the NGO consultations that are convened prior to each GEF Council meeting. When considering the procedures for organizing the consultations as well as those defining NGO participation in the Council meetings themselves, the Council agreed that the accredited NGOs would be responsible for selecting individual representatives to be assisted to attend the NGO consultations and those who would represent the NGO community during the Council meetings. Roles and responsibilities of NGO representatives to communicate with the wider NGO community, including responsibility for preparing for and reporting on, the Council meeting and NGO consultations, are determined by the NGOs.

In accordance with this decision of the Council, the NGO community has designated Mr. Mersie Ejigu, Special Advisor to the Director General on Multilaterals and Economics, World Conservation Union (IUCN-US), Washington, DC as the overall coordinator of the GEF-NGO network. Mr. Ejigu works in close collaboration with the 10 regional focal points who have been designated by the NGOs to assist in disseminating information to the accredited NGOs, soliciting their views on issues before the GEF, and in coordinating the selection of NGO representatives to attend Council meetings. A complete list of regional focal points and their contact information is attached to this letter.

With a copy of this letter, we are informing Mr. Ejigu of the recent accreditation of your NGO.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if we can be of any assistance to you. We look forward to working with you to promote our common interests of protecting the global environment.

With kind regards.

Sincerely,
