

Farmers were introduced to conservation agriculture as a new method of farming . Here demonstration started with measurement of a hole for planting and how to prepare it.

More explanation took place on conservation agriculture method of farming since farmers were very interested to know.

Demonstration continues now on how to mix manure and soil in the hole.