

NALANTHA Trust - Dindigul - Tamil Nadu

About Us

Count of destitute old age people in India is increasing day by day. Factors playing major role in increasing this number are Globalization, decreasing moral values, nuclear families and other socio economic factors. There are many old age homes functioning in India that are either paid homes or they admit only those old persons who can care him/herselves, and are mentally and physically fit..

Saranalaya old age home is managed by the Nalantha . Nalantha is registered under Indian Trust Act. Since then it is working for the welfare of helpless old and other down trodden people of our society.

SARANALAYA

ADOPT AN OUR PARENTS – SAVE A LIFE

You can adopt one or more inmate and bear all the expenses for that person. The Adoption amount is Rs.5000 per month or 60000 per annum .Your adoption can help us give better facilities and care to the sick people at our home.

Saranalaya Oldage Home is totally depended on donations , though we are not getting any financial support from the government yet we are running the biggest old age home for destitute and sick old people in Dindigul totally free of cost, The community funds this old age home and we survive on the individual donations.

We request the kind hearted people of this world to come forward and help these helpless old by adopting One or more inmates of this old age home.
